SCORE WAS TWO AND NAUGHT

Carolina Rallies for Win in Best Ball Game of Season

In the best played game of the season the Carolina nine defeated the Village team by a score of 2 to 0. After two straight defeats The Carolinas proved their ability to come back, and by shutting out their opponents, demonstrated the quality of baseball they are capable of playing. Assisted by perfect support Morris pitched air-tight ball, Nichols' two bagger in the sixth robbing him of a no hit, no run game.

Finnegan opened the game with a single, was advanced to third by Morris' hit, and scored when Armstrong erred in handling Morrissey's grounder. DeRoehn got on after Bruehmuller dropped his pop fly, filling the bases. On a fake play to catch the runner off second, Morris attempted to score from third, but Cow-ing's perfect return nailed him at the plate. Armstrong fielded Edson's easy grounder, retiring the side and preventing further scoring. Carolina's second and last tally was made in the third by De Roehn, who scored on Spredbury's slashing hit to deep center.

The Villager's only chance to score came in the third. With two men on and only one out the prospects of tying up the score looked bright, but McAuley's liner went straight into Morrissey's hands, who completed an easy double play at second. With two gone in the sixth, Nichols drove out a nice two bagger, but McAuley's bid for a hit resulted in a pop fly to shortstop, leaving him stranded on second.

The score by innings:
CAROLINA — 1 0 1 0 0 0 0
VILLAGE — 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

GOOD WISHES FOR MRS. HURD

Hamilton, Ontario, Times Extends Congratulations of Friends

The Hamilton Daily Times prints the following: ¶ An exceptionally quiet wedding was solemnized in Christ's Church Cathedral this afternoon when, in the presence of relatives and a few close personal friends only, Miss Dorothy Iola Campbell of this city became the bride of Mr. Jack Vandevort Hurd of Pittsburgh. The very Rev. Dean Almon Abbott, rector of the Cathedral, officiated. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown tweed with brown hat. She was given away by Lieut.-Col. William Hendrie, and was unattended. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr.
Nathaniel S. Hurd of Pittsburgh. From the church Mr. and Mrs. Hurd went direct to the station for a wedding trip south. They will reside in Pittsburgh.
¶ The bride is one of the most popular of Hamilton's young ladies. She came here from her old country home a few years ago, and soon won a large place in the hearts of Hamilton people because of her distinct personality and worth. For years she has been recognized as one of the cleverest lady golf players of the world. She has held the championship of Canada, the United States, Scotland and England, besides which she is a social favorite and a young lady of many attainments. That her married life will be as bright as her career on the links is the wish of her hosts of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd joined Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hurd at their cottage early in the week.

Important March Events

The ninth annual Spring Golf Tournament, March 3—8, inaugurates the leading tournaments of the year, this event establishing a world's record from standpoint of entrance two years ago.
Ten sixteens are provided for in addition to a special overflow consolation.

March 10—15 will be devoted to the annual Club Championship Tennis Tournament, the events including men's and women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

The thirteenth United North and South Amateur Golf Championship concludes the month. It opens March 22—27 with the women's event, the amateur-professional four-ball, best ball match on the 28th, followed by the thirty-six hole open championship on the 29th.

The men's event fills in the week of March 31—April 5; six divisions provided for and first division play thirty-six-hole qualification and final.
