

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. XVI, NO. 18

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1913

FIVE CENTS

CHAMPIONS ARE THE STARS

Interest of Women's Tourney Centers in Miss Hyde and Mrs. Hurd

Brilliant Qualification Scores Lead to Metropolitan Title Holders Victory in the Final

INTEREST throughout the women's event of the thirteenth annual United North and South Golf Championship centered in the play of Miss Lillian B. Hyde, metropolitan champion, and Mrs. J. V. Hurd, former International champion; their brilliant qualification scores followed by easy wins and the climax of the final. ¶ Five hundred people followed the contest, tense with interest, and Miss Hyde's four and two victory was one which might easily have been made an extra hole match at any one of several critical stages. The strain of play was apparent not alone in medal scores, ten strokes higher than qualification, but in a certain cautiousness which added brilliancy by way of contrast. ¶ The first hole was saved for a halve in 5 by Miss Hyde through brilliant recovery from the trap at the right of the green to make good Mrs. Hurd's perfect play. The second was well played with a 5-6 win for Mrs. Hurd. The third was halved in 6, and the fourth in 4 where a fine approach by Mrs. Hurd came within an ace of going down. Miss Hyde won the fifth, 4-5, by holing a sensational sixty-yard running-up approach after a good drive, a fluffed brassy and a topped third. The short sixth was an indifferent halve in 5, and on the seventh the metropolitan player got into numerous kinds of difficulties and picked up after playing seven shots, while Mrs. Hurd went down in 6. Miss Hyde recovered for a win in bogey 4 on the eighth, but lost the ninth to a bogey 3 for Mrs. Hurd, who turned home one up with a medal score of forty-four to forty-nine for her opponent.

Miss Hyde evened the score on the tenth with a clean-cut 4, and likewise on the 415-yard eleventh she went down in the same score and one under bogey, to a poor 7, through a sliced drive for Mrs. Hurd which the wind caught and placed badly. Another 4, one below bogey, gave Miss Hyde a lead of two up on the twelfth, and the crisis of the match, for Mrs. Hurd made the trap at the right on her drive, and got well out only to make a second trap from which she made the green in 5 and required two putts. Miss Hyde made a 5 and one under bogey on the thirteenth, while Mrs. Hurd took an extra stroke as a result of a penalty by being trapped on her second and making a good out only to lie badly. Mrs. Hurd came back for a win on the 432-yard fourteenth with a one under bogey 4, to 7 for Miss Hyde who pulled her tee shot into the rough and recovered well, only to top her iron, overrun on her fourth holes, Mrs. Hurd won the seventeenth, 3-5, and the eighteenth, 5-7, recording a forty-seven to a forty-three for Miss Hyde coming in. ¶ The cards:

 MISS HYDE—out—5 6 6 4 4 5 10 4 5—49
 MRS. HURD—out—5 5 6 4 5 5 6 5 3—44
 MISS HYDE—in—4 4 4 5 7 3 4 5 7—43—92
 MRS. HURD—in—5 7 7 6 4 4 6 3 5—47—91
 Miss Hyde's semi-final was five and four from Mrs. J. Raymond Price of Oakmont, the title-holder, and her first round six and five from Mrs. C. F. Ubelacker of Hackensack. ¶ Mrs. Hurd

MISS LILLIAN B. HYDE MRS. J. V. HURD

and take two putts, while with Mrs. Hurd a dead approach recorded a 4. The fifteenth was beautifully played, Miss Hyde winning, 3-4. On the sixteenth, a tee shot to the pond cost Mrs. Hurd two strokes from which she failed to recover, although her third was a beauty straight down the course and her fourth made the green. Miss Hyde required a drive, a brassy and two putts for a 4 and the match. ¶ On the bye won by seven and five from Miss Louise B. Elkins of Oakmont, once winner of the United, in the first round and by the same score from Miss Myra B. Helmer of Midlothian in the semi-final. ¶ Other division winners were Miss Agnes Blancke of Montclair, Mrs. J. H. Horner of Oakmont, and Miss Priscilla Beall of Uniontown. ¶ Keen matches of the event were Miss Blancke's 19-hole win

(Concluded on page three)

TIE GIVES ZEST TO PLAY

Fownes and Lagerblade, Worthington and Ross, Lead in Four-Ball Match

Tom McNamara is Four Strokes to Good in Open—Keen Play Bunches Fast Field

ONE HUNDRED and forty-four and a tie between Henry C. Fownes of Oakmont, playing with professional Herbert C. Lagerblade of the local and the Youngstown clubs, and R. S. Worthington of Shawnee, partnered with Directing Superintendent Donald J. Ross of Pinehurst and Essex County, gave zest to the four-ball, best-ball, amateur professional match of the "United" Championship; a snappy afternoon sixty-seven and by three strokes the best round of the day, doing the trick for Fownes and Lagerblade. The morning seventy-seven of the pair was not low enough to attract much attention with two seventy-threes, one seventy-four and three seventy-fives on the score board, but the combined scores equalled the seventy-three and seventy-one made by Worthington and Ross.

Walter Fairbanks, the Denver County Club and Florida veteran, and professional M. J. Brady of Wollaston, recorded seventy in the afternoon for a total of one hundred forty-five, two strokes in the lead of Walter J. Travis of Garden City and Chisholm Beach of Fox Hills (the only amateur pair in the field by the way) who tied with J. M. Thompson of Springhaven and professional Robert J. MacDonald of Cincinnati for fourth position. ¶ J. P. Gardner of Midlothian and professional Herbert Strong of Inwood who made seventy-three, and R. F. Kelton of Holyoke and E. F. Wogan of Essex who finished in seventy-four, were very much in the running at the end of the morning round, but an afternoon's seventy-five for the former pair made their total one hundred forty-eight, while the latter through an eighty-one, dropped far down the list with a total of one hundred fifty-five. ¶ Scores:

Henry C. Fownes, Oakmont and Herbert C. Lagerblade, Youngstown	77	67	144
R. S. Worthington, Shawnee and Donald J. Ross, Pinehurst	73	71	144
Walter Fairbanks, Denver and M. J. Brady, Wollaston	75	70	145
Walter J. Travis, Garden City and Chisholm Beach, Fox Hills	75	72	147

(Concluded on page two)