

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May:

IMPORTANT TRANSFERS

Closing Weeks of Season Witness Continued Activity in Real Estate

Mr. Fownes, Mr. and Mrs. Jenks and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Added to Increasing List

THREE additional and important real estate transfers for the week past ensure individual ownership as a potent factor in Pinehurst's future development. As the culmination of years of growth and bearing the hall mark of the approval of old friends, it is the most gratifying evidence of future prosperity in this the Village which has made the Sand Hills famous. ¶ "The sort of thing the people wanted," was the tribute of beloved Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, and what finer tribute could be paid in this age when we are ever seeking! ¶ Thursday came one of the most gratifying purchases of the season, three lots of land lying between the Ivy cottage and the School upon which Mr. Henry C. Fownes of Pittsburgh, will build a fifteen-room villa, with adjoining garage and attractive grounds. Architects are already at work upon the plans and construction will be with the idea of next season occupancy. ¶ An annual visitor for years, father of not alone a former amateur champion, but the Oakmont Country Club as well, and a business man of national reputation, Pinehurst welcomes him as one of her own most heartily.

A second purchase is by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jenks of Detroit who take the Orange cottage as the result of several winters here. ¶ Mr. Jenks was the founder and is one of the large owners of Harbor Beach, an exclusive Michigan summer resort located on the shores of Lake Huron, and maintained on much the same lines as Pinehurst, some sixty cottages being owned individually and controlled by the "Harbor Beach Resort Association." The property embraces three hundred acres and includes a Club house, golf course, tennis courts, boat house, etc. ¶ Briefly, Mr. Jenks is in a position to know what a resort should be! ¶ Still a third transfer comes in the purchase of the Maple cottage by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie D. Pierce of Rochester, Vermont. ¶ Mr. Pierce came first as a golfer, and came again! It was here, also, that he met Mrs. Pierce and the friends of both are legion.

"Excuse me, please," says Mr. A. S. Newcomb to his intimates, "I must go and sell another cottage!" ¶ Anticipating what might happen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Glenn Worden of New York have thus early leased the Plymouth for the coming season with an option on purchase!

MANY LINGER FOR APRIL

Wistaria and Cherokee Rose Queens Among the Wealth of Blooms

Yielding to the summons of Spring is the Village Beautiful, the fragrant wistaria and exquisite Cherokee rose Queens among the wealth of blooms which sparkle on the rich and ever-varying background of shrub, bush and vine. ¶ The closing of The Carolina on Thursday marks the beginning of the season's end, but many are lingering throughout the month. ¶ Among those who witnessed the closing of The Carolina were: Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Cole of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Gage E. Tarbell of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hopkins of Me'rose, Mrs. J. M. Pew, Miss Pew and Miss Waite of Philadelphia, Mrs. Mary Hyde and Miss Lillian Hyde of Bay Shore. ¶ Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cutler and Miss Julia Cutler of Milwaukee, Mrs. N. P. Cutler of West Newton, Mrs. J. Page Massie and Miss Katherine Jones of Lynchburg, Mrs. A. G. Olmstead and Miss M. Dunn of Condersport, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Check and the Misses Green of New York are among the number who will prolong their visits at The Holly Inn.

At The Holly Inn

At The Holly Inn the household is still a goodly one, the week bringing many additions from The Berkshire, among them Mr. D. N. Clark and Mr. Noyes D. Clark of Woodbridge, Mr. A. T. Woodruff and Miss Helen Woodruff of Mt. Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pease of East Orange, the Misses Anna M. and Elizabeth P. Putnam of Lynn, Mrs. C. A. Farnum and children, Mrs. E. J. B. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Prince of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson of Nahant.

Others who have registered recently include Mrs. J. J. Carter and Mr. Hugh Carter of Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinter of Ambler, Pa., Dr. Andrew Godfrey of Ambler, Pa., Messrs. George L. Atkins of Trenton, William Le Compte of Bristol, Pa., Mrs. A. C. Shand and Mr. A. C. Shand, Jr., of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stetson of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrell of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Casey of New York, Mr. J. H. McConkey of Wrightsville, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. John Guy Owsley of Skaneateles, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Lockwood of Stamford, Miss G. S. Hadley of Lowell, Mrs. Hiram Whitney of Brookline.

SHARP CONTRASTS THESE

Blooming Flowers Here Contrast with New England Snow

"Snow storm amounting almost to a blizzard, in Boston today." ¶ The following telegram posted at The Carolina early in the week, is a reminder of the old adage: "We live to learn" and suggestive of the frequent query: "But do we learn to live?"

To be sure there has never been a keener appreciation of April's joys, yet still there is a lesson to be learned: "Blooming flowers here are frequently but contrasts to snow in Northern climes.—LEARN TO LIVE!"
