

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May 1

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

Ormsbee Played the Can!

Harry A. Waldron of Agawam and H. W. Ormsbee of Alpine are the first of the golfers to negotiate "freak" shots. ¶ Mr. Waldron played from a sand tee box, not knowing he could drop. ¶ Mr. Ormsbee's ball lodged inside a tin can in the rough and he played the can, making the hole, the tenth on No. 3, in six.

Fine Sport for Quail Hunters

The opening weeks of December have provided rare sport for the quail hunters and many are enjoying it. The presence of numerous wild turkeys, a deer now and then, and an occasional woodcock also add to the interest of the "chase."

Team Matches are Enjoyable

A series of Tin Whistle team matches between the Reds and the Blues are providing interesting diversion. The total result for the season will decide which side entertains at the annual dinner.

Guests of Miss Priest

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pratt of the Orange were dinner guests of Miss Lucy K. Priest at a Carolina dinner Wednesday evening.
