

THE MIDWINTER HANDICAP

Some Fast Men in List of Winners of This Classic Shoot

Comparative figures showing attendance at Pinehurst's classic Trap Shooting Handicap are interesting; the increase of 1913 over 1908, one hundred and thirty-three per cent. Starting with twenty-seven amateurs and eleven professionals, the advance was to sixty-five amateurs and fifteen professionals. ¶ Suggestive of the class of contestants is the list of winners in Preliminary and Handicap, all hundred-target events with from 16 to 23 yard handicaps:

A BALLY BIRD'S THE BAT!

B. G. Royal Furnishes Amusement for One Until He Catches On

"A bally bird's the Bat," commented Mr. B. G. Royal the other evening. "Found one testing out his wings while I was quail hunting recently, and began trying single-trigger doubles at him. Never a quiver as my shot shivered the air. Seemed to enjoy it, and as I watched closer, I saw that he was chasing the wads!"

"'Thinks its tiddly-winks,' commented my friend Johnson.

"'Well, he wins,' was my reply, as I swung the gun across my shoulder.

"The next thing I shot was a three-legged rabbit!

"'Keep looking and you may find a wingless dove,' suggested Johnson.

"'Gwan,' says I, 'it's the thirteenth of December!'"

.22 Caliber

Two Popular Repeaters.

There are two popular Winchester .22 Caliber Repeating Rifles, either one of which gives first class satisfaction for target shooting or hunting small game. They are the Model 1903 .22 Automatic and the Model 1906. The first, as its name implies, is reloaded by recoil. After its 10-shot magazine is filled and the rifle once loaded, the only effort required to shoot it is to aim and pull the trigger. The Model 1906 is a handsome, well-made, fine-shooting, smooth-working gun. It is a handy little piece which has no equal in gun value. It has a 20-inch, round barrel, fitted with sporting front and adjustable rear sights. It shoots .22 Short, .22 Long and .22 Long Rifle Cartridges, which permits the use of light ammunition for target work and heavier cartridges for game shooting. MODEL 1902 AND 1904 SINGLE SHOT RIFLES: These rifles cannot fail to please anyone who wants a good .22 Single Shot at an inexpensive price. They are well-made, nicely finished and shoot with great accuracy. They have the popular bolt action, good sights and are take-downs. To appreciate their many good points you should look them over at your dealer's.

WINCHESTER RIFLES ARE SOLD EVERYWHERE.
