

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

Carolina Dances and Dinners
Combine Happily with Bridge
Teas and Luncheons

INTEREST of a full week has centered in the Midwinter Handicap, and for the coming week the Midwinter Tennis Championship is anticipated, followed by the St. Valentine's golf tournaments. In golf, Tin Whistles and Silver Foils tournaments have claimed the attention of numbers, with fox-hunting a popular recreation. ¶ Socially, Carolina and Inn dances have combined happily with numerous dinners, and the usual Monday morning card-party at The Carolina, at which Mesdames Boyd, Sandford, Richter and Newton were prize-winners. Others enjoying the affair were Mesdames Hudson, Crawford, Newton, Barber, Monypeny, Covert, Graham, Alley, Ratcliffe, McCreery, Cunningham and Robinson. Mrs. A. Bryan Alley of Larchmont and Mrs. Guy Metcalf of Providence were hostesses at bridge, and Miss Lucy Priest of Portsmouth gave a luncheon and a dinner for her guest, Miss Alice Presbrey of New York. ¶ "Movie" parties are all the rage, and the Jackson Springs Hotel a popular destination point for luncheon, tea or supper, bridge and dancing. ¶ Every train brings its quota of arrivals, and perfect days are following one upon another.
