The Loan Committee Approves

The Loan Committee of the Sand Hill Farmers' Association have investigated a number of properties in this vicinity on which the owners want to borrow some money, and this committee recommends several of these as being conservative. Those interested in loaning may apply to Mr. L. M. Smith, Secretary of the Association, or in his absence, Mr. R. W. Page or Mr. A. S. Newcomb, all of whom may be found on the ground floor of the General Office Building, Pinehurst, N. C.

They Prove Popular in Connection With Advertising Tournament

A MEDAL PLAY handicap with prizes for the best gross and the best net scores, added to the interest of Monday's qualification round in the Advertising Golf Tournament. In A class R. M. Purves of Woodland and E. M. Alexander of Fox Hills were the winners. In B class, Dr. E. R. Gardner of Dunwoodie was the net prize winner, while C. C. Vernam of Huntington and J. H. Appel of Wykagyl tied for the gross; Vernam winning the play-off.

¶ In Saturday's handicap there were two net score prizes in each class, B. T. Butler of Exmoor and R. M. Purves of Woodland winning A class, while in B class H. J. Frost of Glen Ridge was first with C. W. Yates, his clubmate, tied for second with David Van Schaack of Hartford; Van Schaack winning on a draw:
