

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

TUESDAY EVENING AT NINE

In Aid of Sweet Charity Miss Teyte
Graciously Consents to Sing

INTEREST of the week to come centers in the variety entertainment announced for Tuesday evening at nine in The Carolina Music Hall in aid of the Domestic Science Department of the County School; a Village Club protege. The poster reads "by all-star artists," and it may be interpreted literally, for, in aid of sweet charity, Miss Maggie Teyte the famous opera singer, has graciously consented to sing. ¶ There will also be leger-demain, pianoforte solos, dialect readings, orchestral selections, and several unique surprises. ¶ Tickets are in the hands of a committee of which Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson and Miss Lucy K. Priest are the active head. The first row or rows of seats will be made up in private boxes of four seats each at $10.00, and the remaining seats at $1.00. The opportunity is indeed, a rare one, for no affair of many seasons promises to be more delightful. ¶ Dancing will round out the evening.

For tonight (Saturday) several gymkhana or cotillion "stunts" are announced in connection with the usual dance, and Dr. E. Plumon will have charge of these novel contests, many of which are "direct French importations." There will be two or three contests each for both men and women, and a number of "mixed doubles." Prizes will be awarded in all events by a committee of judges, the program starting at nine, to be followed by dancing. ¶ Socially, the week past has been one of many affairs, among the most enjoyable Monday morning's Carolina bridge party which claimed the attention of the entire colony. Mrs. Priest gave a luncheon for Mesdames John and Charles Smithers, Rumsey, Alley and Massey, and Mrs. W. S. Pyle entertained Mesdames Smithers, Rumsey, Massey and Alley. ¶ Activity in the cottage colony included Mrs. J. D. C. Rumsey's bridge tea at the Beacon Thursday afternoon, and a similar affair in honor of Miss Alice Presbrey, given by Mrs. Judd H. Redfield at Box Court. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pratt dined Miss Presbrey and Miss Priest at the Orange, and Col. and Mrs. R. A. Swigert entertained in honor of their house guest, Miss M. S. Rice of Seattle. ¶ The popularity of Jackson Springs continues, and perfect days are rounding out January as a month never to be forgotten.
