

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

MANY MIDSEASON PLEASURES

Varied Activities Round Out Week for Large and Congenial Colony

A PLEASANT prophesy for midseason's more formal dances was the annual Washington's Birthday dance party at The Carolina, the only regret lying in the fact that the music hall was not the Hippodrome of ancient Rome. From all sections of the Village a company, variously estimated at six hundred people, gathered, not to mention over one hundred dancers. The program was one of novelty, appropriate to the day, the central feature of decoration, the original cherry tree, laden with luscious fruit which was later distributed among the company. The favors included tiny American flags and fac simile orders, carnival hats and caps, mustache blow outs and rooster fans, and noise makers in the form of miniature fox hunters' horns and horse's heads. Refreshments were served at intermission and several Cotillion figures gave variety to the program. ¶ Washington's birthday favors added to the interest of the usual Monday morning card party at The Carolina, at which Mrs. William M. Cunningham and Mrs. C. B. Hudson of New York, Mrs. S. A. D. Sheppard of Amesbury, Mrs. R. H. Cushman of Monson, Mrs. Thomas H. Hardin of Reigelsville, Miss Marion G. Tutill of Flatbush and Mrs. F. B. Whitten of Detroit were prize winners at four tables. ¶ Other observances of the day included Vaudeville at The Inn and an evening of games at The Berkshire which are referred to elsewhere in this issue. For the week to come the annual Board of Governors' dinner on Wednesday precedes the annual Tin Whistle dinner on Monday. ¶ The list of arrivals includes many old friends who return to remain through the month.
