COL. BOGEY HAS HIS INNINGS

Tin Whistles' Best No Match for Him in Christmas Handicap

COLONEL Bogey had his innings in the Tin Whistle Christmas handicap, W. E. Truesdell, the Fox Hills veteran, the only one in the field to tie with the invincible. Playing with a handicap of nine, he headed A class, even up; John H. Clapp of Chevy Chase, (10) second, one down. ¶ In B class John R. Bowker of Albemarle whose allowance was twenty-four, was first, two down; Stuart H. Patterson of Plainfield (12), three down. ¶ H. W. Ormsbee and R. S. Hawthorne contributed the trophies, the former a travelling set and the latter a 3300-year-old Egyptian searab. Mr. Truesdell took the "skidoo set" and Mr. Bowker "the bug."
