

THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK

VOL. XVIII, NO. 6

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 9, 1915

FIVE CENTS

THE TROPHY IS HUNTER'S

Travis' Trusty Putter Slips a Cog in Holiday Golf Tourney Final

Rapid Traveling Throughout With 19-Hole Consolation Win
For Dr. Gardner

'T'WAS smooth, steady, rapid traveling throughout the Holiday golf tourney, not in one but all divisions; the final round for the President's trophy bringing Hunter and Travis together.

And the gallery, remembering the Wee Burn golfer's victory last spring, was quick to grasp the situation. ¶ Hunter broke the ice with wins on the first two holes, Travis retaliating by gathering in the next two. Hunter was in the lead again, however, on the fifth, halved the sixth, and won the seventh; Travis squaring matters at the turn by skilful using of his trusty putter (which off and on slipped a cog) on the eighth and ninth greens.

The tenth was well played and halved in fours; an over-iron losing Travis the eleventh. The twelfth was a halve in 4 and Hunter took the thirteenth in 3, but lost the fourteenth in 7, aided by the pit. A stymie or very close to one, lost Hunter the fifteenth, his approach putt hitting Travis' ball, but he won the sixteenth with a 4; Travis in the pit on his second. The tee shots were even honors on the seventeenth, Travis' putt over-running with Hunter snug up; the Garden City player missing and the Wee Burn golfer holing in 3 for the match by two and one. ¶ Applause? ¶ Yes indeed! ¶ The cards:

HUNTER—Out— 4 4 6 6 4 3 3 4 5—39
TRAVIS—Out— 5 5 5 4 5 3 4 3 4—38
HUNTER—In— 4 3 4 3 7 5 5 3 x
TRAVIS—In— 4 5 4 5 6 4 6 4 x

Hunter's semi-final was four and three over D. L. Armstrong, but the second round with Barber was not so easy. One up at the turn, Hunter won the tenth and halved the eleventh, only to lose the twelfth where he had difficulty and picked up. The thirteenth was even honors, Hunter making a brilliant recovery from a tee shot to the pit and both balls lying twenty feet from the hole on the seconds. The Wee Burn golfer was away and holed with apparent satisfaction, only to find his opponent's ball following suit. The fourteenth was all kinds of trouble and a halve in 7, and the fifteenth was 5 each, Hunter winning the sixteenth in par, and halving the seventeenth in a perfect 3 for the match, by two and one. ¶ The cards:

HUNTER—Out— 4 5 4 4 5 4 5 5 4—40
BARBER—Out— 5 5 5 4 5 4 3 4 6—41
HUNTER—In— 4 3 x 3 7 5 5 3 x
BARBER—In— 5 3 4 3 7 5 6 3 x

In the first round Hunter scored two up in play with C. D. Armstrong, Jr., having a bit the best of it throughout.

Next in line came J. C. Parrish who was six down and five to play, Travis recording a season's record of seventy-three ¶ The card:

OUT— 3 4 5 4 6 3 3 5 4—37
IN — 4 3 4 3 5 5 5 3 4—36—73

Young Wainright Thorington was next the score three and two; the lad holding his own to the turn which he made all even with medal scores of forty-three and forty-one. Halving the tenth he lost the

LOOKS LIKE TWO HUNDRED

Eighth Annual Trap Shooting Handicap Arouses Widespread Interest

Advance Inquiries and Entries Cover
All Sections and Include the Pick of the Experts

"LOOKS like a two hundred crowd for your eighth annual midwinter trap shooting handicap, January 19—23," writes an inter-state association official. "Hear it talked about everywhere and a new feature is going to be club squad attendance." ¶ The statement is but in line with advance entries and inquiries received by the local Gun Club secretary. They cover all sections and the list of fast ones is classy enough to make even the premier Grand American sit up and take notice. ¶ Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 19, 20 and 21, will be devoted to sweepstakes leading up to the Preliminary on Friday and the Handicap on Saturday, the 22nd and 23rd. The big attraction continues to be the lavish added money, exceeding $2,500.00.

Of this amount, the Handicap winners are guaranteed six moneys—$350.00, $300.00, $250.00, $200.00, $150.00 and $100.00, and the Preliminary winners five moneys—$150.00, $125.00, $100.00, $90.00 and $75.00. The total additional value of the trophies offered is $600.00 and in addition to those in Preliminary and Handicap there are cups for the four highest scores in as many classes made by those who shoot the first five hundred targets of the program; Preliminary and Handicap winners being barred.

There is also a gold medal for the high amateur average and a trophy for the average of the entire program. The sweepstakes with regular and additional optional entrance offer attractive opportunities for winning and there are also optional sweeps on all hundred-target events exclusive of Preliminary and Handicap. ¶ Luther J. Squier will again manage the shoot, interstate rules will govern and the Squier money-back-system will be in effect.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson
Mrs. Antionette Murray of Watertown and Mr. Brewster T. Hudson of Brooklyn are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hudson at The Dogwood.

ROBERT HUNTER—WALTER TRAVIS

¶ Travis started down the bracket with a two and one win over Beach, who two down at the turn, squared matters on the twelfth, lost the next three holes, won the sixteenth, but lost the match with a halve on the seventeenth. ¶ The cards:

TRAVIS—Out— 4 3 5 5 6 4 4 4 5—40
BEACH—Out— 5 5 4 4 6 5 4 5 5—43
TRAVIS—In— 5 3 5 4 5 4 6 3 x
BEACH—In— 4 3 4 5 6 5 5 3 x

eleventh to a 3 and twelfth to a 5. Halving the thirteenth in 4 he lost the fourteenth 6—8 and the fifteenth 5—6.

In the consolation Beach and Gardner advanced to renew "previous acquaintance" in the final. All even at the turn and never down going out, Beach zig-zagged his way homeward, gaining a lead on the fifteenth which he held with

(Continued on page eleven)