MRS. PRIEST IS HOSTESS

First of Monday Morning Card Parties Claims Attention of Entire Colony

THE first of the usual Monday morning card parties at The Carolina proved most enjoyable; a pleasant prophesy for the series it inaugurates and which are enjoyed by the entire colony. ¶ Mesdames Newcomb and Baggott were the prize winners; others present including Mesdames Hudson, Dunlap, Barber, Downie and Sandford, and Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Hudson's house guest. ¶ The annual New Year's vaudeville provided an evening of rare enjoyment with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn in their "Anna Eva Fake" act as the stars of the evening. Mr. H. R. Hathaway brought down the house with his humorous monologues and Mr. Arthur B. Newcomb was likewise applauded to the echo in his Heinie Schnitzel dialect. Last but by no means least, were the minstrels with W. A. Barber, Jr., and J. T. McCaddon, Jr., as the ends. ¶ For the immediate future several elaborate entertainments are planned, among them movie pantomines. ¶ The week adds many new faces among which old friends are prominent, and the advertising golfers, who arrive this morning, will be among the first to occupy rooms in the new addition which will be informally opened for them.
