

THE MIDWINTER CHAMPIONSHIP

Annual Tennis Tourney Contest of FARMERS' MARKET EXCHANGE
International Character

FAST winning a place among the leading national tournaments is the fifth annual Country Club Midwinter Tennis Championship scheduled for January 25-30; the all-comprehensive program includes men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles, and mixed doubles, with challenge cup events for both men and women. ¶ J. D. E. Jones, the Rhode Island champion, the present title holder, will defend against a fast field which will have International character through Canadian representation. ¶ Details of arrangement are in the hands of a committee including H. A. McKinney and J. D. E. Jones of Providence, and Irving Wright and Edwin Sheafe of Boston.

Here for Their Honeymoon

Mr. H. O. Whittpenn and his bride, who was Mrs. Caroline B. Alexander of Castle Point, will leave today for Pinehurst, N. C. where they will spend a brief honeymoon. Despite the wealth and prominence of the couple their wedding Wednesday in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Holy Innocence, Hoboken, N. J., founded by the bride's mother, was extremely simple. The ceremony was attended by two hundred persons, relatives and friends who have been associated with Mrs. Alexander in her philanthropic and social works.

Mr. Whittpenn was formerly Mayor of Jersey City, and although he is now one of the most prominent political leaders in the State, besides being naval officer of the port of New York, in deference to his own wishes none of his many political friends attended the wedding. ¶ The Rev. George E. Magill performed the ceremony, and the bridegroom was attended by his private secretary, Mr. Thomas Meaney, Jr. Mrs. Alexander was accompanied by her brother, Major Richard Stevens, who gave her away at the altar. ¶ The ushers were Messrs. Ogden Hammond, Theodore Stevens and Palmer Campbell. * * * As wedding gifts the bride gave checks to the Day Nursery and Christ and St. Mary's hospitals. She also arranged dinners for the Day Nursery, the children at the Jefferson Street playground and the United Aid Home, the patients in St. Mary's Hospital, the inmates of the Widows' Home, the Clinton Reformatory for Women and the members of the Mothers' Meeting of the Church of the Holy Innocents.—New York Telegram.

Still In the Running

Fox hunters have been a moving all the week in spite of the fact that they got rather lost in the advertising golf tourney shuffle. Nipped the aspirations of one fast one and found their match in a typical tar-heel racer. But best of all is next week, and the weeks after that.

Sandhill Board of Trade Establishes New and Helpful Department

The Sandhill Board of Trade wishes to do everything it can to help the farmers of this section find the best of markets for any farm products that they have for sale. Therefore, if the farmers take sufficient interest in the plan outlined below, the Board of Trade will do the work free of charge. ¶ The plan is very simple. If any man in this section has corn, oats, pigs, chickens, horses, cows, hay, or any other farm products to sell he should notify the Secretary of the Sandhill Board of Trade whose office is at Aberdeen, describing the property, and giving the price asked. Farm tools such as wagons, plows, harrows, etc., will also be handled, at least until further notice. These articles will be advertised in local papers. The name of the owner will not be published. Anyone wishing to buy an article advertised will write to the Secretary of the Board of Trade, who will put the buyer in touch with the owner.

We hope that from this simple beginning a complete co-operative exchange and market, which is badly needed here, can be built up. ¶ Now, Mr. Sandhill Farmer, this is up to you. It is your business. It won't cost you a cent. You take no risks whatever. There is no chance to lose anything and there a chance to profit by this arrangement. If you show interest enough in this proposed undertaking we shall go ahead with it. Therefore, if you want better markets in this section write out a list of what you have for sale together with the prices you ask and mail it this week. ¶ If the plan is welcomed by the farmers it will be thoroughly tried out.—CLYDE DAVIS, Secy.
