Makes the Sixth Hole in One

George C. Dutton of the Belmont Springs Club wins a place in a local hall of fame through a one, recorded on the sixth hole of No. 2 course.

MRS. DUTTON THE WINNER

Women's Event of Advertising Tourney Most Successful in History

The women's events in the Advertising Golf Tourney attracted the largest field in the history of the Association and the competition was one of keen interest and close competition throughout. ¶ In connection with qualification was a handicap, Mrs. W. F. Smith of Brae Burn winning the gross trophy with one hundred and three and Mrs. John Shepard, Jr., of Belmont, the net in 127—25—102. ¶ Advancing to the match play final, Mrs. George C. Dutton of Belmont defeated Mrs. C. H. Hanson of Cleveland by eight and seven; Mrs. Shepard winning the consolation from Mrs. H. R. Mallinson of New York by four and three. ¶ The summary tells the story of play:

Mr. Cooper's Pictures

The pen portraits used in connection with the story on the Advertising Golfers' banquet, are by Mr. F. G. Cooper, a cartoonist whose work has a National reputation. Mr. Cooper is spending several weeks here "enjoying himself," and he has very kindly improved idle moments by jotting down a few Pinehurst impressions which are to be reproduced as features in future issues of THE OUTLOOK.

Dancing at The Holly Inn

The usual Thursday evening dances at The Holly Inn are claiming the attention of the entire colony, but as a matter of fact, every night is dance night at The Inn, and those who don't dance make up the big company which enjoys the fun as onlookers.

PINEHURST SCHOOL

College Preparatory Grammar and Intermediate and Primary Departments FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

THE scheme of work is individual, the aim being to enable pupils to continue in the same studies which they have been pursuing in their own home schools. If they bring the books they have used and a plan from their teachers of the ground to be covered during their absence, they will be so instructed that they may rejoin their classes without loss, after a long or short stay in an ideal climate, surrounded by right conditions for healthy outdoor life. Pupils may enter at any time and for any length of time.

TERMS

Primary: season, $75.00; week, $4.00.

Intermediate and Grammar: season, $125.00; week, $7.00.

College Preparatory: season, $200.00; week, $12.00.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Private tutoring at reasonable rates. Music lessons may be obtained from skilled musicians of the Hotel Orchestras.

Mr. Lightbourn, the master in charge, may be consulted as follows:

At The Carolina, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings.

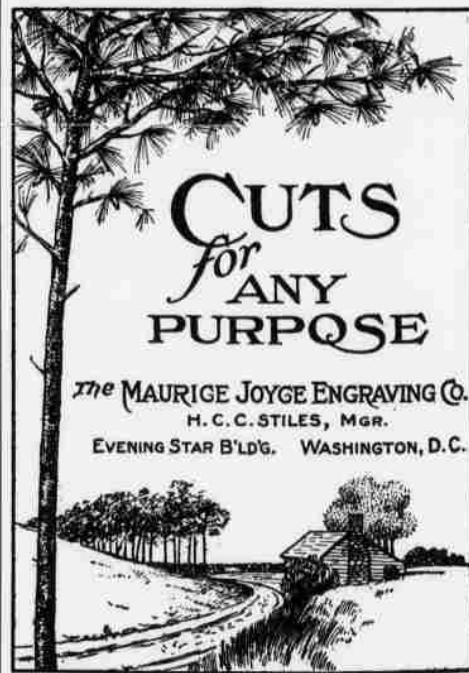

At The Holly Inn, Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings.

At The Berkshire, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.
