HUNTLEY IS HANDICAP STAR

National Doubles Champion Heads Fast Field in Midwinter Tourney

Platt Wins Preliminary Quadruple Tie and Class Trophies Are Widely Distributed

S. A. HUNTLEY, the National doubles champion, was the bright and particular star of the Eighth Annual Midwinter Handicap. Not only did he capture the chief trophy but he also tied for the Preliminary and he won both the high average for the eight hundred targets of the entire program, totaling seven hundred and fifty-nine, and the medal for the six hundred of the 16-yard sweepstakes with five hundred and seventy-five. J. D. Platt, Jr., was the Preliminary winner in a tie shoot off with not only Huntley but H. W. Heikes and G. N. Fish. ¶ Huntley also landed in the class event of the Preliminary for the leading prize, A. E. Ranney winning B Class, D. W. Baker C Class and Vincent Oliver D Class. ¶ In a similar event in connection with the Handicap, J. B. Lallance, Jr., C. W. Billings, David Wardsworth and Isaac Andrews captured the trophies, all in all an event which continues to take front rank among America's classic meets.
