

with one hundred and eighty-eight. Tuesday, Storr made one hundred and eighty-nine and Daniel one hundred and eighty-five.

VISITORS DELIGHTED WITH PINEHURST

Socially many informal pleasures contributed to the week, among them the usual dances at The Carolina, and a dinner tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Spotts in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. G. W. Lembeck. Other guests were Mrs. Lembeck and Messrs. Church, McMahan, Newcomb, Delahanty, Lyon, Higginson, Hammond and Leahy.

SQUIER, TODD AND NORTH A STAR TRIO

Luther Squier, as general manager, J. W. Todd, as cashier, and Charles North, keeping an eye on the traps, formed a star trio, which overlooked not a single detail. High winds bothered Wednesday and Thursday, playing strange pranks with the targets; but conditions Friday and Saturday were as nearly ideal as one could hope to find them.

CLOSE HANDICAPPING PLEASES THE FIELD

The selection of the Handicap committee from the field of contestants continued as a popular feature of the event, and the members did their work well and with fairness and accuracy which placed the contestants, George L. Lyon, Dr. W. F. Clarke, D. F. McMahan, W. H. Jones, E. G. Southey, J. E. Cain and G. V. Dering making up the group.

1916 WILL BE BIGGER AND BETTER

'Bigger and Better' is the slogan for the 1916, when the American recognizing that the European war is of no consequence as far as this country's prosperity is concerned, an entrance well along toward the two hundred mark is anticipated.

THE SUMMARY

Scores eighty and better in Handicap and Preliminary follow:
