GLORIOUS DAYS ARE THESE

Lincoln Fete at Box Court is But One of Week's Many Affairs

GLORIOUS! ¶ Here you have one word which tells pretty much the story of not alone the week past, but the weeks to come. ¶ Jasmine blooming, the first faint breath of spring in the air, wondrous sunshine, blue skies. ¶ And a busy early midseason week of affairs it has been—golf, tennis, shooting, fox hunting, riding, motoring—bridge, dinners, dances—with interest centered in Friday's "Lincoln Fete" in aid of the Village Chapel at Box Court in which the entire colony joined. Mrs. Arthur S. Newcomb and Miss Blanche Farrington gave a Country Club bridge party for Mrs. A. C. Wilcox on Tuesday; Mesdames Howard, Alley and Ormsbee, the prize winners, and Mesdames Foot, Newcomb and Maxwell won the trophies at the usual Monday morning card party at The Carolina. Many have journeyed to the quaint Lift-the-Latch at Pinebluff and several have enjoyed The Princess and Highland Pines Inn at Southern Pines; the regular Carolina dances, Sunday evening concerts, and Saturday afternoon Country Club teas drawing the entire Village together—and best of all—the months lie before. ¶ Thus early the room clerk is playing chess with his room rack in providing rooms for those booked for the immediate future.
