The Happiest of Pines

Little Miss Dorothy G. Whitney, a Carolina guest, aged thirteen, contributes the following:

THE PINE TREE

I'm a pitch pine,
Straight and tall;
You could not climb
Me at all.

I'm trying hard
To reach the sky;
It's upward, upward,
'Till I die.

I've grown so fast
My skirts are short,
But they're far better
Than naught.

English ivy
Round me twines.
O! I'm the happy
Happiest of Pines!

New Ways TO Throw "Clays"

EXCITING as you've found trapshooting, it is now more so when the "clays" fly from the

Hand Trap

Then the shooter is "up against" the cunning of man, unknown target flights and disconcerting range calculations.

Eighty-yard straightaway targets, "over-heads," "jack rabbits," "curvers" and "Englished" targets are some of the flights described in our

FREE BOOKLET

we will send on request. This book explains just how to work the Hand Trap, and pictures many scenes suggesting how outing, camping and motor parties may gain pleasure and instruction with this simple and cheap target-throwing implement.

Price: $4.00. For sale by sporting goods and hardware dealers, or sent postpaid on receipt of price.
