

THE HOLLY INN

SEASON: JANUARY TO APRIL 30

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, caring for with its annexes 200 guests. The lobby has been enlarged since last season contributing greatly to the comfort of the guests.

There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

WEEK OF MANY ARRIVALS

Various Activities Round Out Calendar and Every Train Brings Its Arrivals

THE week has been one with few open dates upon the social calendar inaugurating midseason's more formal affairs preliminary to Monday evening's hunt ball for which the entire Village will gather; Miss Cheatham's recital on Monday and this afternoon's Country Club dansant opening and closing the week. ¶ Several merry parties have enjoyed suppers at the log cabin Gun Club, Mr. John H. Clapp entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Boyce, Mrs. C. H. Hanna, the Misses Helen Fay, Katherine Sefton and Blanche Farrington and Messrs. White, Parish and Frank C. Page. ¶ Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Potts were also hosts, and many have journeyed to the quaint Lift-the-Latch at Pinebluff, with several parties also at the Country Club Grill. ¶ The usual Monday morning card party at The Carolina was most enjoyable, Mesdames Beamish, Newcomb and Dunlap and Miss Gillette the prize winners; next Monday's affair suggestive of Washington's Birthday through souvenir favors. ¶ And arrivals! Every train has brought and is bringing them, old friends and new, who are looking forward weeks before thought of departure.
