"THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN"

One of Cartoonist Cooper's Vivid Pinehurst Impressions

Mr. F. G. Cooper, one of Collier's best known cartoonists, is responsible for the page seven picture; one of several made during his recent visit merely to show that he appreciates the illustrative possibilities Pinehurst offers. ¶ Most of us bear this "burden!"

Pistol Tournaments Scheduled

The first of a series of handicap pistol tournaments is announced for the immediate future. Send your name to Mr.
Noyes D. Clark at The Holly Inn.
¶ Targets, ammunition and pistols may be secured at the Gun Club House adjoining the range.

Novelty Shop is Better

Spend some time now and then in the Jewelry Shop, which by the way is a little misleading in this particular instance. ¶ Novelty shop is better!

You Have Friends

Send us the names of friends whom you think would like to see sample copies of THE OUTLOOK. ¶ We will mail gladly.

New Ways TO Throw "Clays"

EXCITING as you've found trapshooting, it is now more so when the "clays" fly from the

Hand Trap

Then the shooter is "up against" the cunning of man, unknown target flights and disconcerting range calculations.

Eighty-yard straightaway targets, "over-heads,"
"jack rabbits," "curvers" and "Englished" targets are some of the flights described in our

FREE BOOKLET

we will send on request. This book explains just how to work the Hand Trap, and pictures many scenes suggesting how outing, camping and motor parties may gain pleasure and instruction with this simple and cheap target-throwing implement.

Price: $4.00. For sale by sporting goods and hardware dealers, or sent postpaid on receipt of price.
