

THE HOLLY INN

SEASON: JANUARY TO APRIL 30

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, caring for with its annexes 200 guests. The lobby has been enlarged since last season contributing greatly to the comfort of the guests.

There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

MIDSEASON'S COMMENCEMENT

Prominent Visitors At The Carolina Form Distinguished Coterie

The list of prominent guests at The Carolina is a notable one, among them Senator Albert B. Cummings, Congressman S. F. Prouty of Des Moines, and Congressman Allan T. Treadway of Stockbridge, Mass., who spent the week here. ¶ President Darwin P. Kingsley of the New York Life Insurance Company, President Charles H. Sabin of the Guarantee Trust Company of New York, Ex-Senator E. L. Schofield of Stamford, Mr. Charles D. Hilles, president of the National Republican Committee and formerly secretary to Ex-President William H. Taft; Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, the insanity expert; President Robert B. Ward of the Brooklyn Federals and President J. A. Gilmore of the New England Federals; Mr. Sanford H. Steele of Brooklyn; Judge R. J. Walsh of Greenwich, and Mr. S. B. Chapin of New York among those who make up the distinguished coterie. ¶ Mr. Angier B. Duke, Miss Mary Duke, Miss Ellen Yuille, of New York, and Miss Cordelia Biddle of Philadelphia, Mr. Duke's fiancee, were among Friday arrivals.

FANCY DRESS BALL FRIDAY NEXT

For Friday evening next, March fifth, a fancy dress ball is announced with all of the trimmings which go to make up an evening of anticipation and pleasant memory. There will be decorations, favors and a midnight supper, not to mention a consignment of New York costumes from which you may select to your liking, be it prince or peasant. ¶ Mrs. Carl H. Hanna of Cleveland heads the enthusiastic committee which has the affair in charge. The dance will be on a subscription and invitation basis and seats will be reserved for those who contribute to the expense fund—"Ask Mrs. Hanna." ¶ The usual Monday morning card party at The Carolina claimed a generous attendance, Mesdames Morse, Tesson, Hudson, Holt, Newton and Marvin the prize winners, and various informal dinners have contributed to the interest of a week which marks the commencement of mid-season's floodtide. ¶ And birds are singing, and flowers are blooming; blue skies, yellow sunshine and balmy air. ¶ 'Tis a joy to be alive!
