WOW-WOW CLUB ADOPTS MORE APPROPRIATE NAME OF TIN WHISLES

The second reference appears upon Page 7 of the issue of February 15th, and relates to a tournament held upon Monday, the fifteenth, which the Club's historian has, without doubt, incorrectly moved forward one week, but this is of little consequence:

Yes we are; Yes we are;
Tin Whis'les! Tin Whis'les!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Can we golf and can we sing;
Can we make the echoes ring!

Well, we rather think we can;
For the rest just "ASK THE MAN!"

Yes we are; Yes we are;
Tin Whis'les! Tin Whis'les!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

The "Wow—Wow—Wow! Rah—Rah—Rah! Club," which is now known by the more appropriate name of the "Tin Whis'les," got together for its second tournament Monday and a farewell blow-out to a fellow member, W. J. Fleming * * * ¶ President F. W. Kenyon offered trophies for the best net and best gross scores, and there was no protest when M. C. Parshall won both because they were of a character which would not "keep." ¶ At a meeting of the Club after the tournament, the war cry which appears at the head of this story was adopted. * Participating in this tournament were: M. C. Parshall, H. A. Fisher, W. J. Fleming, M. B. Byrnes, J. F. Greene, F. E. DeLong, F. J. Bailey, H. N. Burroughs, J. A. Baker, B. H. Thompson, W. S. North, C. A. Lockwood, A. I. Creamer, H. W. Priest, L. B. Johnson, L. F. Brigham, B. S. Mills.

CONSTITUTION, OFFICERS AND THE LIST OF MEMBERS MADE PUBLIC

The third reference appears on Page 3 of THE OUTLOOK for March 5th; ¶ The mystery surrounding the "Wow—Wow Club," later known as the "Tin Whis'les," is past for the Club now comes forward and announces not only its officers and membership, but a constitution, as well. ¶ It is further intimated that certain rites and ceremonies which have been performed at "the eleventh hole" will be greatly modified and perhaps omitted, and strangest of all, it is said that sterling trophies, which are not so constituted as to be divisible in case of ties, will be offered as prizes in the future. ¶ Furthermore, it is very doubtful if the members will again sing with old-time fervor the familiar war-cry. * * * Beginning in an informal way, more as a frolic than anything else, the members have formed a Club which has for its object:

"To promote a golfing fellowship begun at Pinehurst, and to maintain there a neutral zone for a choice and chosen few from outside organizations, to which it will be pleasant to return year by year."

NOTE—The constitution in its original form, officers and a list of members complete the story.—EDITOR.

"Just As Good" and "The Best"

The only "criticism" we've ever heard of Page & Shaw candies came from a news stand maid: "Why, we can't sell anything else when we have them!" ¶ There are always plenty of "just as good," but only one BEST! ¶ There's genius in candy making just as much as in art, and "Charlie" Shaw is it. ¶ We won't enlarge upon the logic of the fact. ¶ Decide for yourself!

They Trim the Colonel

J. M. Thompson finished three up on Col. Bogey in Monday's Tin Whistle handicap for the Class A trophy; Robert Hunter second, two up. ¶ In Class B W. S. Van Clief and R. C. Blanche were each two up. Nearly sixty members participated.

Miss Cleveland is the Guest

Miss Esther Cleveland was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Page on Monday at the Concord cottage.
