OPEN AIR FETE THURSDAY

Little Folks and Big Will Assemble For Pine Grove Party

Games, Dancing and Afternoon Tea In Aid of Sand Hills Farm Life School

THE revival of the old time Village Club open air Fete is anticipated for Thursday of the coming week, March 11th; the affair as in the past, to be held in the pine grove. ¶ Starting at three will be games, a May pole, and grab bag for the little folks, followed by dancing and afternoon tea for the grown-ups at four thirty.

The afternoon has been arranged as a benefit for the Sand Hills Farm Life School for the older boys and girls of the County; an all-the-year Community of which Pinehurst is now the center. ¶ In the event of necessity for postponement the Fete will be held upon the next fair day, and posters on the various busses will make one quite sure the fun is on.

Mrs. Leonard Tufts is the active head of the energetic committee and she is ably assisted by many former members of the one time Village Club. ¶ Posters calling attention to the day have already anticipated this announcement.

The annual February men's tennis singles developed a splendid final match between J. C. Parrish, Jr., and R. Adams Balfe which the former won. In opening play, Parrish recorded 6-2, 6-3, but Balfe took the third set, 3-6, and fourth, 6-1, only to lose the decisive final, 6-0. ¶ Parrish won by 2-6, 6-6, 6-2 in the semi-final with Stephen Gates, and Balfe triumphed by 8-6, 6-3 over R. H. Hoskins.

Other contestants included A. C. Pearson, Harry Balfe, March Turner, A. C. Sullivan, A. C. Speyer, H. C. Anderson, J. H.
