WEEK OF RED LETTER DAYS

Few Open Dates Upon Calendar of Sports and Social Pleasures

THE social calendar for the week past has been one of red-letter days; the Hampton singers, fresh from their New York success, Tin Whistle dinner, open air fete and numerous dinners and teas following one after another. ¶ In sports the annual Club Championship tennis tournament has been the attraction, vieing with the annual Tin Whistle and Silver Foils mixed foursomes, trap shooting, baseball, and riding. ¶ Mesdames Nicholson, Blanche, Newton, Watson, and Robinson were prize winners at the usual Monday morning Carolina card party, and for the usual dances the entire colony gathers. ¶ For the immediate future a revival of the old-time "living pictures" is promised under the able leadership of Miss Caroline Fuller. ¶ And arrivals—"where do they put them all?" is the problem.
