

THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK

VOL. XVIII, NO. 16

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 20, 1915

FIVE CENTS

ROBERT HUNTER IS CHAMPION

Leads in Fifty-four Hole Tin Whistle
Tourney With Total of 242

Parker Whittemore Close Second and
T. R. Palmer and E. G. Chandlee
Win Net Trophies

ROBERT Hunter's final eighty won the Tin Whistle championship by a margin of two strokes over Parker Whittemore, and a pretty race it was. Fifty-four holes in all there were, one round each on courses numbers one, two and three, in the order given, the Wee Burn golfer recording a brace of eighty-one's and one eighty against seventy-seven, eighty-three and eighty-four for the Brookline expert. There were two prizes, also for the best net scores T. R. Palmer, whose allowance was twenty for each round, recording a net of two hundred and nineteen, one point in the lead of E. G. Chandlee who deducted thirty-six daily. I. S. Robeson's eighty-one was the best eighteen hole round (Hunter and Whittemore barred as winners) and seventy found Dr. Carlos P. Macdonald (36), and M. D. Fink (24) tied for net. The scores by rounds, 1, 2, and 3 courses, gross total, total handicap and net total:

House Guests of Dunlaps

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. West of Taunton are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Dunlap at Colum Lodge.

MRS. BARLOW IS THE WINNER

Medal and Match Play Honors In Silver Foils Championship

Mrs. Roland H. Barlow of the Merion Cricket Club found little opposition in the annual Championship of the Silver Foils, her final match with Mrs. J. Raymond Price of Oakmont, five up and four to play. In the semi-final Mrs. Barlow defeated Mrs. H. R. Stockton of Plainfield by two and one, and in the first round Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson of Pinehurst by six and five.

Mrs. Price advanced for the final on a nineteen-hole win from Miss Louise Elkins, her clubmate, who tied with a winning 6 on the eighteenth green only to lose the nineteenth to a 5. Her first win was from Mrs. E. R. Behrend of Erie by two up. Mrs. Stockton won in the nineteenth green from Mrs. W. J. Faith of Wykagyl in the first round, and Miss Elkins was four up and two to play over Miss Sarah Evans of Swampscott.

Mrs. Barlow's eighty-nine was the best qualification score, three strokes in the lead of Mrs. Faith and Miss Elkins, and six better than Mrs. Price. Mrs. Stockton made ninety-six, Mrs. Jillson ninety-nine and Mrs. Behrend one hundred.

Andrews Leads Trapshooters

Aided by a handicap of 20, J. H. Andrews won the weekly trap shooting handicap with 103 net, out of a possible hundred. C. T. Crocker (18) was second in ninety-nine and Whittemore (5) tied with Morgan (16) at ninety-six. The scores:

CROCKER	-20	24	22	15-18-99
ANDREWS	-23	18	20	22-20-103
MORGAN	-21	22	18	19-16-96

THE UNITED CHAMPIONSHIP

Fast Field Assured With Ouimet as Star Attraction

Women's Event Opens the Program
With Today's Qualification Play

THE fifteenth annual United North and South Amateur Golf Championship bids fair even thus early to be the fastest and most representative contest in the history of this classic. Amateur Champion Francis Ouimet is already here for preliminary practice joining J. C. Parrish, Jr., Hamilton K. Kerr of Ekwanok, Jesse P. Guilford of Intervale and Parked W. Whittemore of Brookline who precede him. Gardiner W. White of Flushing, Philip V. Carter of Nassau and F. K. Robeson of Pawling are coming, not to mention a delegation of golfers now farther south, and the title holder, R. S. Worthington, and probably Walter J. Travis and D. Clarke Corkran.

Henry C. Fownes of Oakmont, J. M. Thompson of Springhaven, W. E. Truesdell of Fox Hills, Robert Hunter of Wee Burn and I. S. Robeson of Oak Hill, the all-season "steadies," are all liable to be heard from, with always the possibility of the "dark horse" to step from the background into the limelight. The program opens with the women's event March 20-25, followed by the amateur-pro contest on the 26th, and the Open
