LIVING IN THE OPEN AIR

Pinehurst Responds to Invitation Of Glorious Spring Day

GOING somewhere, doing things, is Pinehurst these glorious spring days when all out doors is an invitation. Tin Whistle Club Championship on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday; Silver Foils Championship on the same dates; baseball two afternoons; cavalry rides every day; trap shooting, tennis, motoring, with opening play in the women's event of the "United" Championship today. Annual employees' masquerade at The Carolina Wednesday as the "nothing like it" entertainment feature of the season, with dance, dinner, tea and bridge engagements filling my lady's calendar to the postscript stage. ¶ Mesdames Blancke, Ingersoll and Newcomb, and Misses Adams and Lange were the prize winners at the usual Monday morning Carolina card party. ¶ Arrivals by the train load from frozen north, sunny south, golden west, and starry east, until one expects a "billiard tables next" announcement from the room clerk.
