In United Tourney

"WHO'S WON?" has been the query of the week, with interest centered in the women's event of the United Championship and the play of Amateur Champion Ouimet and other "cracks" gathered for next week's premiere test. ¶ Socially a progressive luncheon for the cottagers proved one of the most novel affairs of the season, Mrs. J. D. C. Rumsey, Mrs. John Smithers, Mrs. George F. Blake and Mrs. C. S. McDonald, Mrs. H. W. Ormsbee and Mrs. A. S. Newcomb, Mrs. Henry S. Houston and Miss Moore serving as many courses at as many homes. ¶ A Carolina dinner for President John H. Fahey of the National Chamber of Commerce brought together a distinguished coterie of business men and the popularity of the every night dances claims the entire colony. ¶ Arrivals will swing midseasons flood tide well along into April, and many are coming to linger for the last good-byes of May.
