THE GOSPEL OF GOOD TIMES

President Fahey is Honor Guest at Carolina Business Men's Dinner

President John H. Fahey of the National Chamber of Commerce, was the honor guest at the Carolina dinner arranged by Messrs. William Hamlin Childs, president of the American Coal Products Company; S. Frederic Taylor, president of the Borden's Condensed Milk Company; and Lewis M. Borden, vice president of the A. Jaekel Company; the invitation list including: F. M. Borden, president Borden Stove Company, Philadelphia; J. T. Dorrance, president Joseph Campbell Preserving Company, Camden; W. T. Stall, president Stall & Dean Company, Brockton; J. M. Pratt, vice president Guaranty Trust Company, New York; W. P. Gardner, vice president Title Guaranty & Trust Company, Jersey City; W. G. Mackendrick, contractor, Toronto; M. B. Johnson, president White Automobile Company, Cleveland; W. H. Thayer, U. S. Radiator Company, Boston; Charles B. Price, president Pettingell-Andrews Company, Boston; Robert Mathews, Mathews & Boucher, Rochester; J. M. Thompson, J. M. Thompson & Company, Philadelphia; Col. J. Ernest Smith, president Delaware Trust Company, Wilmington; E. J. Philips, Philips & Avery, Attorneys, New York; T. R. Palmer, president Continental Rubber Works, Erie; and Harry I. Thayer, president Thayer, Foss & Company, Boston. ¶ Mr. Fahey is entering upon his second year as the head of this influential organization and the discussion was very largely "the gospel of good times." ¶ Representative, also, was the company of the class of men Pinehurst claims among its admirers.

PINEHURST SCHOOL

College Preparatory
Grammar and Intermediate and Primary Departments
FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

THE scheme of work is individual, the aim being to enable pupils to continue in the same studies which they have been pursuing in their own home schools. If they bring the books they have used and a plan from their teachers of the ground to be covered during their absence, they will be so instructed that they may rejoin their classes without loss, after a long or short stay in an ideal climate, surrounded by right conditions for healthy outdoor life. Pupils may enter at any time and for any length of time.
