

THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK

VOL. XVIII, NO. 18

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 3, 1915

FIVE CENTS

CHAMPIONSHIP IN FULL SWING

Amateur Professional and Open Events Inaugurate Pinehurst's Classic

National Champion Ouimet is Bright and Particular Star With Sensational Medal Rounds

THE "United" Championship swung wide open on Friday last with the amateur-professional, four-ball, best-ball event, and never a dull moment has there been since; final rounds of the Amateur Championship in progress as we go to press. Yes, it has been some week, but next week the story! ¶ The climax of opening play was a winning one hundred and thirty-seven for Amateur Champion Francis Ouimet and Donald J. Ross, two strokes in the lead of Henry J. Topping and Tom Macnamara with cards of 70-67 and 73-66, and the crisis of play was the afternoon round with the victors fully aware of what was necessary for them to do to win.

Making the turn in thirty-four with two 5's, three 4's and four 3's on their card, Ouimet and Ross raced home in thirty-three with seven 4's, one 3 and a 2 for a winning total of thirty-three. The climax of play was very naturally the homeward journey, the first four holes in par and the fourteenth in one under par on a screaming putt by Ouimet. A pulled tee shot on the fifteenth put the Champion out of the running, but Ross awoke the echoes with a thrilling 2. The fifteenth was an easy par 4 and likewise the seventeenth a 3 where with good luck Ouimet might have recorded a 2 on an off-the-green stab.

Ouimet's tee shot on the eighteenth was side by side with his partner, and his iron at the green over-ran to the sand adjoining the caddie quarters, but he pushed up dangerously close and ran down a 4. ¶ The cards:

UNCLE ED IS THE WINNER

Tunes Up For Winning Seventy-one in Last of Tin Whistle Tournaments

E. D. McCabe and J. M. Robinson are Second Two Strokes Further Down the Line

JUST to show his young protege, Jesse Guilford, that he was still in the game, "Uncle Ed" Slayton tuned up for a winning one hundred and five card in the Tin Whistle handicap for the Leonard Tufts trophy which annually concludes the Club's tournament program. ¶ And was the veteran pleased, no more so than his legions of friends. ¶ A handicap of thirty-four reduced the score to seventy-one net, two strokes better than E. D. McCabe (22) and J. M. Robinson (24) who tied for the second and third Club prizes at seventy-three. ¶ And there were others, forty-three of them. ¶ The scores:

E. M. Slayton	48	57	105—34—71
J. M. Robinson	45	52	97—24—73
