

NOT A CONDITION OF MIND!

Mr. Hamilton Tests Out the Mental Hazard Pond Hole Theory

"Lou" Hamilton says the twelfth hole pond on number one course is not a "condition of mind!" ¶ In foursome play with Mrs. Fred Herreshoff, D. T. Leahy and Mrs. W. J. Faith, Mrs. Herreshoff's tee shot made the pond at the right. The ball was located floating near what appeared to be a small raft, not far from shore, and Mr. Hamilton, always the gallant, poised like Mercury of old, sprang lightly out, and discovered with surprising speed that the "raft" was merely two floating boards which quickly parted company as "Lou" sank to the

GUILFORD: "WONDER GOLFER"

Quimet's Victor State Champion At Fourteen Years of Age

Quimet's four and three defeat plays strange havoc with prophecies for he was a favorite against the field at two to one odds and better, and previous to the Amateur-pro and Open he was slated by many to win all three events. ¶ At this time and hour we will not try to "explain" what happened—read that in next week's OUTLOOK—but briefly summarized, "short work" was Quimet's undoing, and play was fast enough so that every stroke counted.

waist line. ¶ And not a frog has had the nerve to croak within hearing distance since!

Come and See Us, Says Fenn

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Fenn of Poland Spring are welcomed back for their annual visit. ¶ Come and see us, says the popular professional, we're going to open our eighteen-hole golf course next summer and it's some course.

year through defeat of Herreshoff which won a place in the Championship flight where he was defeated by Webb. ¶ At fourteen years of age he won the New Hampshire State Championship which title he has captured for three years since. ¶ He's but twenty years old, but a man in size, and he not only "drives a mile," but he's right on the the job every minute, and we've a notion he could do seventy on number two.

Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Spaulding were dinner guests at a Carolina dinner, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Whittemore, and the Misses Marie Sinclair and Muriel Tannehill the guests.
