IN THE GLORY of the sunset is the promise of the morrow, and thus as the season waned, we anticipate the season yet to be.
¶ "Wonderful" the past has been, prophetic not alone for Pinehurst, but American resorts as well, through present realization that we—"U. S."—are complete unto ourselves! ¶ Seek happiness the world over, and, returning, find it at your own fireside, and always the vain quest for the ideal resort leads to the "home amid the pines"—Pinehurst, in all truth—health, wealth, and happiness!

"WE ALL LOVE to see wheels go round—anything that's moving," and as the child of our adoption, we point with pride to the Pinehurst of yesterday; the Pinehurst of today; the Pinehurst of tomorrow! The Resort Pinehurst; the Home Pinehurst; the Community Pinehurst, with its influence not alone upon the State, but the Nation. ¶ Broad acres, waving fields, happy homes; the glorious all-the-year land of liberty and living—"an anchor for the Ship of State in times of great crises," as President Derby of the Sand Hills Board of Trade so aptly put it at Saturday evening's Beef Breeders' banquet.

THANK GOD for the men who do things, for the vision which comprehends, for the mind that thinks, for the heart which feels; men to whom service in its all-comprehensive application, is "philanthropy" —the "men from Missouri" who want to be shown, and are willing to show! ¶ One six-mile strip of good road has led to two thousand miles hereabouts; several self-supporting farms are transforming the Sand Hills into a land of promise. ¶ No "boom," no "Booster's Clubs;" but just plain figure-it-out-for-yourself facts; the indisputable logic of results.

THIS ISSUE concludes THE OUTLOOK'S season and there's a deal of satisfaction in feeling that few "tricks" have escaped us; that The Greater Pinehurst and THE GREATER OUTLOOK are synonymous, and "the limit is the sky!"

THE NEW COMMUNITY HALL

An Opportunity For Endowment Of Most Practical Sort

AT THE recent meeting of the Community membership is forty-five active and sixteen associate and the worthy object of the organization is to look after the expenses and indebtedness of the handsome new building which is universally admired, as well as to do welfare work in the Village. ¶ Here is surely opportunity for an endowment which should be a con-

"LIBERAL EDUCATION"

General Passenger Agent Ryan So
Regards Pinehurst

General Passenger Agent C. B. Ryan of the Seaboard Air Line entertained passenger representatives here on Saturday with a time card meeting, and, also showed them what a wonderful place Pinehurst not only is, but is to be. "The inspection will be liberal education on our resort features," was his comment.

New Ways
TO
Throw "Clays"

EXCITING as you've found trapshooting, it is now more so when the "clays" fly from the

Hand Trap

Then the shooter is "up against" the cunning of man, unknown target flights and disconcerting range calculations.

Eighty-yard straightaway targets, "overheads,"
"jack rabbits," "curvers" and "Englished" targets are some of the flights described in our

FREE BOOKLET

we will send on request. This book explains just how to work the Hand Trap, and pictures many scenes suggesting how outing, camping and motor parties may gain pleasure and instruction with this simple and cheap target-throwing implement.

Price: $4.00. For sale by sporting goods and hardware dealers, or sent postpaid on receipt of price.
