Saving the Sandhills

Is a favorite Winter sport. They have been saved many times. They were saved by Leonard Tufts, when he inaugurated a system of good roads. They were saved by Roger Derby when he stormed the Shawmut for a breed of barren metal during the hard times. They were saved by the Woman's Auxiliary in establishing the Farm Life School. They were saved by the Board of Trade each and every week.

But in our estimation the winner in the contest, and by all odds the most potent single force in the community, leading towards right living and a happy ending (not even excepting a military encampment) is Miss Grace Bradford. Miss Bradford is in charge of the Girls Canning Clubs. The record of her accomplishment is more than noteworthy. It is revolutionary. She has sold every single can of stuff the girls have put up to merchants here at home. This, we may observe, is economy and co-operation in the concrete. Four girls are this minute paying their own sweet way through the Farm Life School with the proceeds of their canned goods. Please notice that this is equal to the efforts of at least four philanthropic societies in search for an outlet for their uplift money. Seventeen other girls are gaining their own education in other schools on the proceeds of their Summer's efforts with Miss Bradford. If there is a finer example of what people can do for themselves, and of what the kindly labor of a good woman can do for a neighborhood—well we will pay five cents a word for three columns of it.

The Lumbec River Trip

The river trip was taken on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. Parker Whittemore and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Weeks. They paddled 25 miles down the Lumbec and came home full of enthusiasm for the journey.
