

THE BALSAMS

DIXVILLE NOTCH, N. H.

Open June to October

The new GOLF COURSE fulfilled every expectation in 1915. Each season the playing conditions will be improved.

The Club House, really magnificent and harmonizing perfectly with its surroundings, occupies a site that could not have been better chosen nor more excellently arranged.

The Hotel Plant, complete in every detail, is situated among forest clad mountains, upon an extensive tract including farms, dairy, fish-hatchery, hydro-electric plant, garage and machine shop. Pure spring water is supplied in abundance. Indoors there are rest and homelike comforts; out of doors every opportunity to enjoy tennis, boating, bathing and wilderness life.

The Balsams Winter Inn, having steam heat, electric lights and private baths is open from October to June.

FOURSOOME PLAY

LeRoy and McLeod Lead the Tin Whistle Field

Good old fashioned foursome medal play was on the cards Monday, February 8th, for the Tin Whistle brigade. John A. McLeod of Woodland playing with Stuyvesant LeRoy from Newport, in spite of invidious remarks as to their composite physiognomy, led the bunch home in a walk, and took away the first prizes with a net score of 78. Their actual record was 90, 45 both ways. A combined handicap of 12 gave the total.

Second in line was R. C. Shannon 2d, the Brockport player, and J. D. C. Rumsey of Brooklyn, their record reading 47-46-93 less 13-80

These four were awarded the prizes provided for the occasion by Mr. H. C. Fownes and the Club.

Meantime J. H. Clapp is able to tell the time and deceive his friends into believing he is a dispenser of cigarettes at the same time. He fell heir to a most wonderful watch encased in silver, a reward for defeating G. W. Stutzell on Tuesday. They played off a tie resulting from the game against bogey last week, Clapp being victor with two up.
