The Absolute Dependability of Sutton's Grass Seed Mixtures

When you buy Sutton's individual varieties or mixtures, you get exactly what you pay for.

And further than that, you pay for pure grass seed only. The chaff is all taken out. All weed seed entirely removed.

Those of you who have been down to our establishment at Reading, England, and witnessed the workings of our numerous cleaning machines; and seen the seed going from one to the other; have marveled at the extent of the process and the number of cleaning machines. Sutton's Seeds must pass through. Your confidence was still further established, when you found that the complete process, from cleaning to germination tests, was continually under the direct supervision of one of the firm.

In comparing weights in buying, you will invariably find Sutton's Seeds run more pounds to the bushel, simply because they contain no empty shells—but live grass seed.

Although we carry a stock of seeds on this side; still in the height of the season, large orders may have to come from England. As a precaution, send your orders at least a month ahead of your needs.

You are welcome to a copy of our Red Book, on Golf Course Construction. If you incline to send $3.75, we will mail you, the famous "Book of the Links," by Martin H. F. Sutton.

terested" heads in the legislature. Together with original drawings of the Kentucky Cardinal and the holly tree, of Loch Lomond and Notre Dame we observed on the blackboard a diagram lucidly setting forth the workings of the Credit Union just formed by these children's elders under the same roof. The next generation will not be left by a negligent nation to discover with an ignorant and suspicious mind the leach from the statesman.

This place is farmed by tenants. But not the old tenant of righteous indignation. Householders, each man with his own individual establishment, with his own problem, his own garden, his own rotation. They all make all their own food supplies, and are on the road to permanent and self-respecting homes. Not tenants. Men. Friends. Counselors.

Incidentally it is the second largest and best kept plantation in the district, and is governed from a dwelling of many hospitable rooms, the very center of constructive ideas on rural life in the State of North Carolina.

Aids to Memory

Cyrus was asked how he managed to remember the name of every soldier under him.

"It's easy," replied the great Persian. "When I lived in the suburbs I used to buy all my wife's threads and ribbons."

Famous Screen Actress Reduced to Rags

In a worn blue sweater with her wealth of blonde hair tucked under a torn boy's cap, Blanche Sweet will make her appearance at the Carolina Theatre in William C. DeMille's thrilling drama "The Ragamuffin."

The beautiful Miss Sweet is seen as a girl of the slums who has been brought up by an old crook who uses her in his illegal calling and stands as a father to her. How, while burglarizing a house, she meets the young man whose photograph makes her change her entire career, goes toward making a photodrama that is thrilling and unusual.

Miss Sweet's millions of friends who have seen her in evening gowns will be more than delighted with her as the cute little "tough" in her forthcoming picture, to be shown at the Carolina Theatre, Monday, February 21st.

NEW YORK AT NIGHT

with its famous "tango palaces," its Theatre Lane, its great white way is graphically pictured in A. H. Wood's famous stage success "New York," while "Cinderella," the beautiful old fairy tale so well depicted by Little Mary Pickford, is the opposite extreme in life. Which do you prefer? Both can be seen at the Carolina Theatre Wednesday night, February 23rd.
