Alphano, the Economical Greens Dressing

AT THE present excessive prices of chemical fertilizers, Alphano Humus with its rich humus base and high content of all the essential soluble plant foods, is a better buy than ever.

Its entire freedom from odor and thoroughly sifted, finely granulated texture, make it ideal for a top dressing mixture of two-thirds soil and one-third Alphano.

Send for the Alphano Book.

Among other important facts it tells you the dangers of using unprocessed humus in its raw, water-logged, generally acid condition.

Send for it, as a protection to yourself.
