Lagerblade in Seventy-Five

Against a field that cannot be excelled anywhere in this country Herbert Lagerblade won first money in an exhibition golf match on Number 2 Course Wednesday last. There were eight entries, playing for a purse of $300 made up in the village.

The contestants, who went out before a large and somewhat disconcerting gallery, were Herbert Lagerblade of Pinehurst, Tom Kerrigan of the Siwanoy Club, Tom MacNamara, James Wilson of Pinehurst, Pat Doyle, Michael Brady of Oakley, Skip Wogan of Pinehurst and George Bowden of the Tedesco Club.

It was the medal play, in two sets of fours, and in spite of a rather raw wind a good part of the village turned out to follow the game, and to cut across from one set of players to the other all afternoon. Of course it was good golf, and the winning card of 75, all things considered, was fine going. But the players have hardly hit their stride yet. Brady, who is heralded to be the longest driver in the business certainly made considerable distance, but it is expected that before he leaves we will see him breaking all records down the course. McNamara's putting was not up to his usual phenomenal form, and he had to be content with a score of 87. It is only fair however to say that the greens had been recently sanded and were not quite as fast as the players anticipated.

Lagerblade won, Tom Kerrigan was second in 76, one stroke behind, and Wilson and Doyle tied for third place with 81 each. Kerrigan went out with the best score, a 37, only one stroke above par. Wilson made the smallest single score on one hole, doing the treacherous but short 17th, the masterpiece of the course, in a pretty two.

Lagerblade's card was:
Out— 5 5 4 4 4 3 6 3 4—38
In — 4 5 4 4 4 4 4 3 5—37—75

KERRIGAN'S

Out— 4 5 4 4 5 4 5 3 3—37

Land Sale

Mrs. Parker W. Whittemore of the Cones and Mrs. John C. Spring, who owns the Log Cabin, have made an investment in the village. Last week they purchased the Honeysuckle Cottage on Main Street, next to Mrs. W. L. Hurd's, through Arthur S. Newcomb. It was purchased to rent, and has been rented to Mrs. S. A. D. Sheppard of Boston for the season.
