

ranked third, Miss Dorothy Barber, winner of races, Miss Betty Bicknell and Miss Virginia Slayton with her brothers, H. E. Slayton and H. K. Slayton; W. H. Weller, familiar on the track, and Harry Cross and J. Skinner.

The egg contest, that final test for the pony marketer, was a distinct triumph for the Slayton family. H. E. Slayton took the loving cup home with him in memory of the wonderful ride, and H. K. the recollections of a close finish.

But none could meet Miss Barber on equal terms in that last remnant of the tourney days, the mad career with lance in rest, this time directed at the iron ring instead of the vizor top, but none the less accurate for all that. Five times she speared the ring, while in close competition with four to their credit came Miss Crow, Harry Cross and W. H. Weller.

The Sandhill Hunt

A volume of poetry would not avail to convey the striking scene and the joys of the chase one half so well as the accompanying pictures of the drag hunt of the Weymouth Hounds at Historic Bethesda Church. There was a full cry and a happy party from the village joined with the masters of the hunt from Southern Pines and the county people of the Sandhills on that occasion. A few are shown in the print. The role call included Miss Katharine O'Rourke, Master Franklin Ovis, Master Warren Bicknell, Miss Bettie Bicknell, Miss Frances Bicknell, Miss Katherine Wing, Mrs. M. B. Johnson, Mr. W. C. Blanding, Mr. W. H. Weller, Mr. Sam Wardwell, Miss Thelma Mertz, Mr. Nat Hurd, Miss Dorothy Barber, Mrs. F. B. Money Penny, Mr. Harold Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Leach.

Frying Pan Picnic

And now the stables are depleted, and once again all those fond of the saddle and the good company set out Tuesday for the lanes and sandy paths to the grove at Ray's Old Mill, to know the pleasures of a camp luncheon and bivouac on the trail. Here hang frying pans at the saddle-bow, and rashers of bacon, and the loot from the ranches and the hen houses of the Drowning Creek region. For those who ride are fond of the open ways, and the broad sky, and distance, and a bright fire by a clear stream. Many are the expeditions they take unheralded into the forest ways, this brotherhood of horsemen, and great is their changing membership. But this time the recorder has the muster of the rank and file as follows: Mrs. Daisy Porter, Miss Rena Maitland, Miss Fredrica Kauffman, Mr. Harry Cross, Master Harvey Slayton, Jr., Master Hoyt Slayton, Miss Virginia Slayton, Miss Bettie Bicknell, Miss Katharine Vaughn, Miss Barbara Vaughn, Master Alfred Oppenheim, Miss Nancy Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Leach.

This is a photograph of Grove Park Inn, Sunset Mountain, Asheville, N. C.,—the finest Resort Hotel in the world. It is absolutely fireproof and open all the year.

The 120-acre, 18-hole golf course is the finest in the South—it is a blue grass course. All the water used at the Inn comes from the slopes of Mount Mitchell, the highest mountain east of the Rockies, nearly seven thousand feet altitude. The milk and cream come from Biltmore Dairy on the estate of the late Geo. W. Vanderbilt.

It is the cleanest, most Sanitary hotel ever built. Every floor is tile. Every bedroom has Mosaic tile covered with French Rugs made at Aubusson, France. The foods are the finest money can buy. The kitchen is spotless white tile to the roof and pure white Mosaic tile floors. The buildings are built of great mountain boulders—some of the walls are five feet thick—boulders weighing as much as four tons each.

We are three and a half miles from the railroad. The street cars are not allowed to come near enough to be heard. We burn coke—not soft coal. Automobiles not allowed near the building during the night. Thus we have no smoke, no dust, no train noise. We have pure air, common-sense, digestible food, quiet in the bedrooms at night, the finest Orchestra outside of New York and Boston, a great organ, and an atmosphere where refined people and busy business men with their families find great comfort and a good time.
