MRS. HURD'S MEDAL

than 100. This reveals much better play than last year, both for the leaders and for the group. Only five entries last year made better than one hundred, and Mrs. Barlow won the medal with 92.

A surprise of the match was Miss Elinor Gates having to take seventh place with a 97, and Miss Priscilla Beall's improvement in form, moving her up into the first division with a 99, exactly the score Mrs. Hurd had last year. Altogether it was a very fast tournament, and gives promise of some spirited competitions before anyone lands the trophy.
