

ANNUAL SPRING TOURNAMENT

ASHEVILLE COUNTRY CLUB

Asheville, North Carolina

APRIL 12th to 15th, 1916

Four Sixteens to Qualify. Prizes for Winner, Runner-up and Consolation in Each Division. Gold Medal for Low Score of Qualifying Round.

The Eighteen Hole Course of the Asheville Country Club is interesting in its variety and resembles in its setting and surroundings the course at Manchester, Vermont. Grass greens in perfect condition; and wide, well trapped fairways.

Asheville is one of the most delightful resorts in America, surrounded by towering mountains. The April climate compares with a Northern May. Asheville has five hotels, The Grove Park Inn, The Battery Park, The Manor, Margo Terrace and The Langren.

A special train of Pullman Cars will leave Pinehurst Saturday night, April 8th, going through to Asheville without change, arriving there Sunday morning. Through Pullmans from Asheville to New York via the Southern Railway.

APPLY TO DEPOT TICKET AGENT FOR DETAILS.
