

MILLIKEN'S DAY

Proves Master of the Tin Whistles in Medal Play

Whittemore, Parsons and Becker Make Things Lively and Tie Up Second Honors

MONDAY, December 11th, the Tin Whistle legion assembled for medal play, the best selected 12 holes on the number one course, six to be chosen from each nine, and the usual club handicaps to leaven the score. Some very good golf was developed during the contest, which was as close as any man could desire. W. S. Milliken of Hyannisport, turned in the winning card, 23 on the first six selected, and 20 on the last, a net total of 43, seven under fours. He had no strikes to spare. Pressing only one shot behind him came three of the strongest players on the links—Parker W. Whittemore of Brookline, whose gross score of 76 was incidentally the best of the day for the eighteen holes, Donald Parson of Youngstown, runner-up in the Autumn Tournament, and C. L. Becker, always of the first string. Milliken took the J. M. Thompson prize, and the three played off the tie for the club prize on Wednesday.

This resulted in a very fast pace set by the Brookline champion. His score, playing from scratch, was 41 for the twelve holes, about as good as any fellow is likely to do. Parson equaled the winning score of Monday with a 43, and Becker drew a 50.

The whole affair was very close and interesting, Tom Kelly of Southern Pines, R. H. Hunt of Worcester and R. C. Shannon of Brockport all being only a single stroke behind the second string, and two from the leader.

Although there was no effort to make a good card for the 18 holes, still it is noteworthy that during the contest Whittemore returned a card of 73, the best amateur record of this season, and that Robert Hunter cracked an eighty. There were a number of others who showed better than 85, showing that the champions are rounding into form.

Whittemore Makes Season Record

The champions are getting into form, and the golf scores are coming down. Parker W. Whittemore of Brookline making a Tin Whistle round Tuesday last on the number one course came in with a 72, which is the best recorded this year. This was all the more creditable because he made a 39 going out, which called for perfect golf coming in—which was delivered. He made every hole in par except the long 505 yard 17th. This he made in four perfectly played shots one under par. It has been a long time since these nine holes were negotiated without a single score above four.

Out	—39
In
Hole	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18
Par	4	3	4	3	4	4	4	5	3—34
Whittemore	4	3	4	3	4	4	4	4	3—33
Total,	72

Going after this record Robert Hunter of Wee Burn, the next day got as far as the 17th tee with a 64, but a bad streak of luck spoiled the chance on that hole.

Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania arrived at the Carolina Hotel last week on the annual visit to Pinehurst. On his way down the Governor made an address at Raleigh upon municipal government. He is spending a good part of the day on the links raising sand, as he himself says. The rest of the time he is engaged upon his message to the Legislature, which convenes early in January.

Send THE OUTLOOK to your friends. It tells the story of the week and saves letter writing. Ask for mailing envelopes.

GOVERNOR BRUMBAUGH OF PENNSYLVANIA

PINEHURST is, to be brief, the most complete and perfectly equipped Fall, Winter and Spring Resort in the world; an Ideal Village created by the late James W. Tufts. Possessing exceptional opportunities for outdoor life, it also offers right conditions for living in every sense of the words; its unsurpassed location in the far famed long-leaf pine thermal belt or Sand Hill region, responsible for a winter climate generally acknowledged to possess few equals in the rare purity of its air, and the subtle tonic of its sunshine.

As the winter Golf centre of the two hemispheres, Pinehurst is now thoroughly established, its unequalled equipment embracing three distinct six-thousand-yard eighteen-hole courses and an additional nine-hole course. Perfectly maintained and laid out in accordance with modern standards, they rank with the world-famous courses, and the special holes are "quoted" wherever the game is known. Here are held annually four contests of international importance beginning with the Midwinter tournament in January, and concluding with the United North and South Amateur Championship in April. A fireproof locker room, shower baths and observation and lunch rooms, add to the attractions of the conveniently located Country Club house.

Closely seconding Golf in importance, are Trap Shooting and Tennis, the annual Mid-winter Handicap and Tennis Championship held annually in January, classic events which attract the country's best, a significant indication of the excellence of the superb equipment for these sports. As the Hub of Southern good roads, the Village offers special attractions to motorists and those who ride and drive; the Livery is of the best and the Garage the largest in the state. Auto service runs between the Country Club, Station and various points in the Village.

Forty thousand acres are maintained as Shooting Preserves for Village guests with good quail and dove shooting and an occasional turkey or woodcock. In connection are Kennels of high excellence and equipment necessary to meet the demands of the most exacting sportsmen. Rifle and pistol shooting, polo, fox hunting, equestrian sports, baseball, billiards and pool, are among the attractions which combine happily with social pleasures. The hotel orchestras are of high standard and dancing is enjoyed by the entire colony.

The Hotels, four in number, include The Carolina, the largest in the state and one of the best appointed in the south, which with its new seventy-room addition, provides for over five hundred guests in accordance with the high standard of modern requirements. The Holly Inn, accommodating two hundred guests, enjoys general popularity, while The Berkshire and Harvard, caring for one hundred guests are suited to those desiring a more moderate rate. The Pine Crest Inn and Lexington are the smaller houses. In addition to twenty attractive family cottages, well furnished and provided with modern conveniences, are a rapidly increasing number of private homes; evidence of the permanent place the Village holds in the affections of its admirers.

Various utility plants, a Dairy, Creamery and Market Garden, models of excellence and the only plants maintained on the same large scale for a similar purpose, play an important part in supplying the needs of the Village in the way of milk, cream and vegetables. There are also a department store, pharmacy, meat market, jewelry store, novelty shop, photographic studio, chapel, schools, library, central power plant furnishing electric light and steam heat, laundry, refrigerating plant, general office, post, telegraph and telephone offices, railway station, resident physician, resident minister, abundant pure water supply, and sanitary sewerage system. In fact, the Village supplies every modern need offering unequalled and diversified attractions for people of refinement at a wide range of price. CONSUMPTIVES ARE EXCLUDED.

Pinehurst is seventeen hours from New York and through Pullmans run throughout the season direct to the Village over the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The western service is excellent. Stopover privileges are granted to tourists going either north or south.
