

Carolina Hotel since last we celebrated the New Year, and cash dividends ranging from 20 to 75 percent have been paid to stockholders of the older orchards. We pride ourselves most that we do this business as a team—that all the information any of us have the rest have—that we make a community reputation and not an orchard reputation, and that any stranger is welcome to join. But we do not sneeze at the profits.

An Educational Centre

Enormous advance has been made in our facilities for teaching the youth of our land—for open. Dr. William Hill, builder of practical farm schools, is not only making our Farm Life School the best training camp in the South, but is giving it a National reputation. The Derby Memorial School on Drowning Creek is already being used as a model for Consolidated Rural Schools by the Department of Education at Washington. And now Dr. Demerritt, to whom a large part of the best element in Boston is indebted for an education, is establishing himself at Jackson Springs.

All of which we mention only to show that we appreciate the bringing up our next generation with the ideals and practical sense necessary to continue the final making of a livable country. We have at our command now more than our proportion of the educators of proved ability. Eric Parson, recently master at Groton, a follower of Peabody, has established his boys' school at Pinehurst. Dr. C. Hanford Henderson has an ideal place a few miles from here in the Valley of the Lumbee, which he calls Marianfield. It is there we hear our best music and perceive the influence of a life spent in the real forces of life, and are working for them for all we are worth. And if you believe a concerted community effort can make any place into what it will, you will join the team, or at least look on and cheer.

the distinguished jurist and recently counsellor for the State Department in strenuous times has been taking his Christmas vacation on the Pinehurst links, in company with the Tin Whistle brigade.

WINCHESTER

.32, .35, .351 and .401 Caliber SELF-LOADING RIFLES

When you look over your sights and see an animal like this silhouetted against the background, you like to feel certain that your equipment is equal to the occasion. It is, if you are armed with a Winchester Self-Loader. Not only does this rifle shoot surely, strongly and accurately, but it gives you a chance to get in a number of shots in quick succession. It is the rifle of rifles
