

J. W. WATSON AND JUDGE STEELE

GET THE BETTER OF BOGEY AND THE TIN WHISTLES CHRISTMAS DAY

Number Three Course Takes a Fall Out of the Veterans

FOUR up on Bogey, two better than William T. Barr, his nearest competitor could negotiate, and incidentally both the best gross and net card of the day was the record of J. W. Watson in this week's Tin Whistle golf match. Thirty members of the ancient club were on hand Monday afternoon for the event, celebrating Christmas by matching their skill against Bogey in two classes.

Judge Sanford H. Steele in his first contest of the year led the second class home all even with the bogey score, with Jay Hall of Lansing, second, one down.

It was the first time this season that the veterans had massed against the Number Three Course and Donald Ross' ramparts and the defence devised during the Summer told on the scores. Many an old hand who is accustomed to life in the eighties and to break into the seventy class with the champions in the North and South were handing in hard earned cards over the ninety mark, and plotting vengeance on both the course and the grinning bogey in the Midwinter.
