New Years on the Track

The Jockey Club plans to repeat the success of the Christmas Derby on New Years Day. They urge that this announcement be not only considered as a program, but as an invitation for those that are holding their mounts for the races to bring them out on that day. The entries will include a number of new horses that have come into condition, and it is expected that some of the fastest mounts in the region will be sufficiently in shape to add speed and doubt to the $100 steeple chase. Thomas says that he will bet all he can rake together that he can carry Captain Heck over the bars ahead of Miriam H. and Captain Englin has a horse that is credited with better than anything the thoroughbreds have shown yet this time of year.

Colonel Welck of the Highland Pines Stable, who brought a large party horseback over the roads

Christmas Day to take in the meet, has entered the pick of his thoroughbred string, the wonderful mare Virginia Handsome. She is slated to get away with the Hunters' Cup, and provide the colonel with an annuity. Maybe so. Our province is to relate, not to foretell.

The program for New Year's as outlined Wednesday evening previous is:

1. Harness Specialty. For pacers and trotters. Mile heats, best two out of three. Purse to winner.
2. Ladies' Purse. 3/8 mile dash. Silver trophy to winner. Guests of the village and the hotels can obtain good mounts for this event at the Pinehurst stables.
3. Guests Purse. 3/8 mile dash for gentleman riders. Silver trophy.
4. Hunters' Cup. 1/2 mile flat race for thoroughbreds only. Purse to winner.
5. New Year's Steeple Chase. Full course for $100.

To Build for an Investment

Mr. C. B. Hudson of New Suffolk has purchased a house site adjoining his own residence, the Dogwood Cottage, upon which he intends to build an attractive house to help out in the shortage of cottages in the colony, which has been experienced for a number of years.
