TIN WHISTLE EVENTS

Full Program of the Club's Varied Golf Events of the Year

Every known and some unknown varieties of golf tournaments will be played this year by the famous club. The calendar is dotted with red letter days devoted to mortal combats against bogey, four ball and three ball onsets, match play and medal play, swatfest and flag race, for a wonderful display of trophies donated by the members. The order of events as kindly provided us by the secretary is as follows:

JANUARY 8—MEDAL PLAY. Twelve selected holes, six in each nine. First and second prizes.

JANUARY 12—SWATFEST. Two classes. Prize for each class. Prize for best net score. No player can win more than one prize in this event.

JANUARY 15, 16, 17, 18—THREE-BALL MATCH. Twenty-seven to qualify. Play off on six point system. First, second and third prizes.

JANUARY 16—For those who failed to qualify on January 15. Against Bogey Prize for winner.

JANUARY 27—AGAINST BOGEY. Two classes. Prize for each class.

The prizes for January are given by Messrs. Bacon, Beekman, Blackburn, G. F. Brown, J. H. Clapp, Gallagher, Houston, Nelson, Robinson, Swigert, Waters, and Watson.

FEBRUARY 5—FOURSOMES. MEDAL PLAY. First and second prizes.

FEBRUARY 12, 13—ROUND ROBIN. Twenty-eight to qualify. Prize for best net score. Best eight gross scores form two sets of four to play off at scratch. The other twenty net scores form five sets of four to play off at handicap. Prize to winner of each set of four.

FEBRUARY 13—For those who failed to qualify on February 12. Against Bogey. First and second prizes.

FEBRUARY 19—MEDAL PLAY. Twelve selected holes. Six in each nine. Two classes. Prize for each class.

FEBRUARY 21—THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY. Flag contest. Two classes. Prize for each class.

The right of way on No. 2 course is given to the Tin Whistles for two hours on this day.

The prizes for February are given by Messrs. Aborn, Baldwin, Boyd, Carr, J. H. Clapp, Faust, Fields, H. C. Fownes, Howard, Hunt, Lay, Milliken, J. G. Nicholson, Parson, Patterson and Weller.

McCaddon's Day

ble fourth. In the second heat Toy Boy got mad, as he will on occasion, and lit out for home. Opinion among experts is that in this condition he would have won, excepting that he had the gross misfortune of being in a pocket. As it is, he beat all but Walter C., and got a new rating thereby.

The girls' dash was a hot affair between Miss Eleanor Abbe, Miss Tufts and Miss Bliss. These three have been neck and neck the whole season, usually in the van of the whole field. Miss Abbe got the jump at the start—and she kept it lickety split all the way to the glorious finish, and was publicly rewarded with a handsome pigskin portfolio.

Stanley G. McCaddon of Wayne, Pa., showed what Topsey could do and rode a thundering fine race for the guests' purse, winning on the last supreme spurt from Tyler Redfield of Brookline. Joseph Terry McCaddon, Jr., brought Dixie in third.

Joseph T. had his chance in the SteepleChase. The thoroughbred race was declared off, and the stable string given a chance. McCaddon was on Traveller, and it's fair to say these two seemed to have come to a complete understanding. They left the rest behind to debate second place, which fell to Sam with Batchelor up.

Three thoroughbreds did some real running in the flat race for hunters, Kittron under Whitlock's guiding hand redeeming himself and turning the tables on Chase with Batchelor up. Col. Welch's fine mare, Virginia Handsome, although new to the track, and not yet in form for hard going, was right on the heels of the leaders.

As usual the hit of the day was made by that unsurpassed and unsurpassable comedian and race course joke artist, Nigger Demus' ancient mule, Gabriel.
