THE WEEK AT THE HOTELS

The Carolina

Among the notable visitors at the Carolina we note the return of Lady Spring Rice, the wife of the British Ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring Rice was expected, but the affairs of the world are in such condition that it is difficult for him to leave the throttle in Washington. William Rand, the leading criminal lawyer in New York, special counsel for the State in many of the great criminal trials of the last decade, has been spending a few days here on a well earned rest after the last phase of the Rae Tanzer comedy.

The Monday bridge parties boast a large and enthusiastic following among the ladies, this week's prizes falling to Mesdames Pearson, Smith, Bemis, Olmstead, Hayes, Pierce and Barber.

The roll call of incoming guests include:
