Busy at the Berkshire

Mrs. J. Pryor Williamson, Wilkes Barre, Pa., won the first prize for the highest score in marksmanship at Annie Oakley's Shooting School scoring 41 out of a possible 150. The prize was a beautiful silver spoon (souvenir).

The guests here entered into an indoor putting contest, the course being played from the men's writing room through the office, main hall, ladies' writing room and finally ending in the parlor where pillows and other articles served as bunkers and hazards along the course. The committee in charge: Mrs. C. H.
Lay, Oil City, Pa., and Mrs. J. M.
Robinson, North Reading, Mass.
The prizes were won as follows:

First prize—Mr. Cheel.
