

FAMOUS CHAMPIONS DEFEATED

Montreal Ladies Win Handicap Four Ball Match in Silver Foils Tournament

Mrs. S. C. Jones and Miss Jones of Montreal, lined up against truly formidable teams of champions, including Miss Mildred Caverly, runner-up at Belmont Springs last year, playing with Miss Eleanor Gates, winner of the St. Valentine's, Mrs. Roland H. Barlow and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, still took the first prize in the Silver Foils four ball best ball match last week by a good margin of three strokes. Their net score was 77, their nearest competitors being Miss Gwendolyn Cummings and Mrs. Peg Woffington, who tied for second place with Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. H. H. Rackham of Detroit.

HENRY McALEENAN

Wins the Junior Golf Tournament

With the remarkably good card of 89 over Number One, Henry McAleenan of New York came home champion of the boys of Pinehurst, winning the final round from Stuart Macdonald of Toronto 5 and 4. The occasion was the first of the Annual Junior Golf Tournaments for school boys. Warren Bicknell of Cleveland returned the best score in the qualifying round, and acquired the medal with a score of 103. McAleenan was one stroke behind, and the rest of the field were grouped behind Oliver Redfield of Greenwich, who came in with 109.

The youngsters made a very creditable showing, and give promise of making the event one of the popular features of the year.

Mrs. Finch Rifle Champion

The prize for the best score of the week's shoot by the ladies of the colony at the rifle range under Annie Oakley's instruction was won this week by Mrs. Margaret Finch of New York with 138 points out of a possible 150. So popular has this contest become that the entry list has become altogether too large for Annie Oakley's sole care, and Charles Newcomb, the famous trap shooter and many times champion, has volunteered his assistance. More than 1500 ladies have been in this competition this year.

Crocker Wins the Shoot

Breaking 87 out of a hundred targets in the weekly trap shooting handicap Charles T. Crocker of Fitchburg ran well over the 100 mark with his allowance, and took his stand with Mitchell, Hubbell, Hostetter and Swift in the shoot-off. Here his net score was a perfect string of 25, two better than Mitchell and Swift, and three better than Hubbell and Hostetter. D. F. McMahan made the best gross score of the day with 94 actual breaks out of a possible 100.
