A BRILLIANT TOURNAMENT

Mixed Foursome Event of the Tin Whistles

Won by Mrs. Johnson and A. L. Carr.
Mrs. Hurd and Whittemore Play
Championship Golf

THE gala day of all Pinehurst field events took place on the links at the Country Club last week, when the Annual Tin Whistle invitation mixed foursomes were played over the No. 2 Course. National champions and finalists, debutantes and the favorites of the Cottage Colony joined forces with the old battalion—and made some remarkably good scores as well as a golfing holiday.

Mrs. C. B. Johnson ably seconded by A. L. Carr chalked up the lowest return, a net 77, and captured the major trophy. They had a scant margin of one stroke over Mrs. Price and H. C. Fownes, winners of second place. There were three couples finishing in 79—Mrs. M. B. Fynes and H. E. Mabbett, Mrs. Judd and J. H. Herring, and Mrs. Scammell and W. C. Fownes, Mrs. Judd worked the rabbit's foot and won the toss and the trophy.

Those who expected a wonderful exhibition by that championship pair, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd and Parker Whittemore, were not disappointed. The brilliant gallery—brilliant both in fine raiment and repartee—were rewarded by a 78 gross, which we are led to believe has no peer in the mixed foursome field in this neighborhood.
