SHOOTING MATCH

J. V. Hall Beats the Experts at the Traps

J. V. Hall, hailing from New York, a leader in the Cottage Colony at Pinehurst, outshot a platoon of experts at the Gun Club Tuesday last for the weekly trap Shooting prize. F. A.
Seibert and H. H. Buckley of New York, and G. M. Howard of Halifax also worked under the wire and recorded a perfect score with the aid of their handicaps for the first hundred targets. So these four shot off again, with the result that Hall broke 23 of the frame of 25, and so won the trophy. Howard and Buckley each missed four and Seibert five.

R. R. Dickey, a well known expert with the shotgun from Detroit, failed by just one shot to get into the shoot-off—a fate also befalling Parker W. Whittemore, scratch man and leader at the traps.

PINE CREST INN

Has Unique Golf Tournament

The Pine Crest Inn played golf en masse on Wednesday of last week, in one of the most entertaining and congenial tournaments we have ever seen on the historic links. Thirty or more of the old clientele assembled, in medal play against an unknown bogey, between 80 and 85. The rules provided that each fellow select his own handicap, the net score nearest the blind bogey to be the winner.

This developed a tie at 83 between W. H. Curtis of Syracuse, F. B. Rampe, Cincinnati, and Charley Mason of Pinehurst.
Curtis won the play-off and the Inn championship. Some of the best players in the South were numbered among the entries.
S. M. Morgan of Altoona, a first division man, had to be content with 82, one off the magic number, F. S. Danforth of Orient made the best gross score of the day with 76. C. B. Hudson, another familiar expert, came in with 81. Col. W. C. Jones and J. H. Galley of Syracuse just missed the mark with 85. Mrs.
Roland H. Barlow, the Pinehurst champion, returned an 89. Among the ladies Mrs. C. P. Lake and Mrs. F. S. Danforth tied with 84 for best position. This family affair ranged from championship golf, a 76, to the remarkable record by one player of 237.
