

SEVEN UP

Thayer Beats Bogey and Fifty-seven Entires in Tin Whistle Event Friday

The Tin Whistle event Friday was against Bogey for the Leonard Tufts prize and divers lesser compensations, for those that didn't quite. And let it be said at once that the odds were altogether too much for bogey. Fifty-seven to one the unequal combat raged, with the old veterans now in full battle trim, and the fairways hard and dry, good for all the distance put behind the ball. So 19 of the company came in one up or better, with W. H. Thayer of Bellevue in the van. He was seven up, with a medal round of 77 on number two. Robert Foote from New Haven pressed him close, with C. B. Hollingsworth hard upon. The best gross score of the day was again brought in by Robert Hunter, whose 75 augurs well for a hard fight in the United.
